RRHA MEDIA Alert

HUD Cares Pays a Visit to Richmond VA Housing Authority

WHO: Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority (RRHA) will host Senior Officials from President Biden's HUD Administration's United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), along with other partners and stakeholder organizations from Richmond's affordable housing community, financial/banking sector, non-profit, public housing residents, and local government representatives.

WHAT: Roundtable Discussion on:

- "What are the long-term strategies to Move Public Housing Authority families to Self-Sufficiency?" - highlighting RRHA's one-of-its-kind in the nation Comprehensive Homeownership Initiative for all public housing residents and voucher holders
- RRHA's ground-breaking vertical construction at Creighton Court – 1st major redevelopment of public housing in the city of Richmond in a decade (10 years).
- RRHA Eviction Prevention and Lease Enforcement.

WHY: Lay-out strategies to advance opportunities for low-income households to break the cycle of poverty and become self-sufficient.

WHEN: Tuesday, April 23, 2024 at 11 a.m.

WHERE: Armstrong Renaissance Community Center, 1665 North 31st Street, Richmond VA 23223
