~ Public Meeting to be held June 17, 2025 | 5:30 p.m. ~

Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority (RRHA) is preparing to submit its Annual Agency Plans for Fiscal Year 2026 to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The plans submitted are RRHA's Annual Plan, Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy (ACOP), Administrative Plan and Capital Fund Five Year Action Plan.

"These plans outline RRHA's policies, programs, operations, and strategies for meeting local housing needs and goals for the upcoming year. RRHA remains committed to continuous growth and development to address the local housing crisis, and placing residents on a path to self-sufficiency, homeownership and wealth creation," said CEO Steven Nesmith.

The Annual Plan provides a summary of RRHA's actions, activities, and resources for the coming year. The ACOP and Administrative Plan outline the policies governing the Public Housing and Housing Choice Voucher programs, including but not limited to program eligibility, tenant selection, rent determination and occupancy guidelines. The Capital Fund Five Year Action Plan outlines needed repairs, maintenance, and modernization, along with related management activities, for RRHA Public Housing developments.

Plan materials are available for a 45-day review and comment period and can be accessed online at <https://www.rrha.com/about/reports-plans/>; in-person at RRHA's Administrative offices at 600 East Broad Street, Suite 400; or at any of RRHA's Public Housing Property Management Offices.
